No. L. S. 25—L.W. 98-49-3, dated Bangalore, 5th April 1950.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 35-A and 49-F of the Mysore Factories Act, 1936, (Mysore Act No. I of 1936), His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore is pleased to make the following Rules, the same having been published as required by Section 78 of the Act.

By Order of His Highness the Maharaja,

B. S. PUTTASWAMY,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department.

The Mysore Factories (Holidays) Rules.

I. Preliminary.

1. Title.—These rules may be called the Mysore Factories (Holidays) Rules.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context :—

(a) "The Act" means the Mysore Factories Act, 1936 (I of 1936).
(b) "section" means a Section of the Act.
(c) "Chapter" means Chapter IV-A of the Act.
(d) "family" means husband, wife and children.
(e) "form" means a Form appended to these rules.
(f) "register" means the Holidays with Pay Register.

II. Compensatory Holidays.

3. The compensatory holidays to be allowed under Section 35-A (1) shall be so spaced that not more than two holidays are given in one week.

4. The Manager of the Factory shall display, on or before the end of the month, a notice of the dates on which the compensatory holidays will be given in respect of persons who are to be allowed compensatory holidays during the following month, at the place at which the notice of periods of work, prescribed under Section 39 is displayed. Any subsequent change in the notice in respect of any compensatory holiday shall be made not less then one week in advance of the date of that holiday.

5. (1) The Manager shall maintain a Register in Form A and make a return in Form B within two months of the end of the year or season as the case may be :

Provided that, if the Chief Inspector of Factories is of the opinion that any muster roll or register maintained as part of the routine of the factory, or return made by the Manager, gives in respect of any or all of the workers of the factory, the particulars required for the enforcement of Section 35-A, he may, by order in writing, direct that such muster roll or register or return shall, to the corresponding extent, be maintained in place of and be treated as the register or return, required under this rule for that factory.

(2) The register maintained under sub-rule (1) shall be preserved for a period of three years after the last entry in it and shall be produced before the Inspector on demand.

III. Holidays with Pay.

6. (1) The employers shall maintain a Holidays with Pay Register in Form C and make a return in Form E, not later than the 1st March of the year subsequent to that to which it relates :

Provided that, if the Chief Inspector of Factories is of the opinion that any muster roll or register maintained as part of the routine of the factory or return made by the employer, gives in respect of any or all the workers in the factory the particulars required for the enforcement of Chapter IV-A, he may, by order in writing, direct that such muster roll or register or return shall, to the corresponding extent, be maintained in place of and be treated as the register or return required under this rule for that factory.

(2) The register maintained under sub-rule (1) shall be preserved for a period of three years after the last entry in it and shall be produced before the Inspector on demand.

7. (1) The employer shall provide each worker with a book called "Holidays Book" in Form D. The book shall be the property of the worker and the employer or his agent shall not demand it except to make entries of the dates of holidays or interruptions in service, and shall not keep it for more than ten days at a time.

(2) If a worker loses his "Holidays Book" the employer shall on a written application in this behalf together with payment of four annas, provide him with another copy.

8. If so required by the employer in writing the worker shall submit a medical certificate signed by a Registered Medical Practitioner or by a Registered Vaidyan or Hakim or Vaidyan or Hakim employed by the Government or by a Local Body stating the cause of the absence and the period for which the worker is, in his opinion, unable to attend to his work.

9. Before or on the completion of a period of twelve months' continuous service in the factory, as defined in Section 49-B, a worker may give notice to the employer of his intention not to avail himself of holidays falling due in the following period of twelve months. The employer shall make any entry to that effect in the register in respect of that worker and in his Holidays Book.

10. Except in regard to the worker who has given notice of his intention not to avail himself of holidays in the year in which these accrue, the employer shall prepare a programme of holidays stating the date on which holidays with pay shall be allowed to each worker or groups of workers as the case may be including the worker who has accumulated his holidays over two periods of twelve months each and shall give notice of the dates so fixed to each worker. Any date so fixed by the employer shall not, in an individual case, be earlier than three weeks from the date on which notice as aforesaid is given by the employer unless the worker agrees to take the holidays earlier. The necessary entries shall be made in the Register and the Holidays Book.

11. As far as circumstances permit, members of the same family shall be allowed holidays on the same date.

12. The employer may alter the date fixed for holidays only after giving a notice of four weeks to the worker.

13. The second half of the pay due for the period of holidays shall be paid to the worker not later than the date when the first payment of wages is made after he resumes work.

14. If a worker dies before he resumes work, the balance of his pay due for the period of holidays shall be paid to his nominee within one week of the receipt of intimation of death of the worker.

15. (a) Where an exemption is granted under Section 49-G., the Manager shall maintain a register showing the position of each worker as regards holidays due, taken and pay granted.

(b) He shall display at the main entrance of the factory a notice giving full details of the system established in the factory for holidays with pay and shall send a copy of it to the Inspector.

(c) No alteration shall be made in the Scheme approved by the Government at the time of granting exemption under Section 49-G., without its previous sanction.

16. Every Employer requiring exemption under Section 49-G., from the provisions of Chapter IV-A shall apply to the Secretary to Government, Law Department, through the Chief Inspector of Factories in Mysore, together with two copies of the leave rules in respect of which the application is made.
